KATE SHELLEY'S PLUCK.

IT RECEIVES A FITTING REWARD.

A Brave Girl Who Saved a Train Load of Passengers From Disaster is Presented With a Testimonial.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 15.—The State Legislature took possession of the Capitol in this city and presented Kate Shelley with a handsome medal valued at $20 in recognition of her heroism in preventing, at the risk of her life, on the night of July 6, 1881, a disaster over the Chicago & North-western Railroad near Molineaux. It was prepared by Tiffany & Co. of New York, and represents Kate in the act of crossing the railroad bridge over the Des Moines River. Above are the words, "Heroism, Youth, Humanity."

On the reverse of the medal is the following inscription: "Presented by the State of Iowa, to Kate Shelley, with the thanks of the General Assembly, in recognition of the courage and devotion of a child of fifteen years, who neither the terror of the storm nor the fear of death could appeal in her efforts to save human life during the terrible storm and flood in the Des Moines valley on the night of July 6, 1881."

Congressman Holmes, to whose efforts this action had been referred, is largely due, he hopes to secure, in addition to the small sum voted by the Legislature enough money to have the education of Kate Shelley. Her family is poor, the father, who was a section foreman of the Chicago & North-western Railroad, was killed in an accident two years ago. The mother has since then endured many hardships and privations in the endeavor to bring up her five children.

The story of Kate's heroic deed is as follows:

Just before midnight, on the night of July 6, 1881, a storm of wind and rain of unusual severity descended upon the region around Molineaux. The storm was so violent that the Molineaux river rose six feet. So great was the velocity of the wind that many buildings were destroyed.

Looking from her window Kate Shelley saw through the darkness and storm a locomotive headlight. A second later it dropped from sight, and she knew that the Honey Creek bridge was gone and that the train had fallen into the abyss. There was no one at home except her mother, her sister and her brother and sister, and the girls that if the express train, soon due, was warned of the dreadful danger she must undertake the task alone.

She hurried from the house into the storm, she groped the railroad track, made her way toward Molineaux, a station about a mile from Honey Creek, as fast as she could. The lightning was so violent that she nearly lost her balance, and just as she reached the station, the train came. She hurriedly ran to the engine, and just as it was about to start, she saw the train. She hurriedly ran to the engine, and just as it was about to start, she saw the train.

MR. PAYNE IS ELECTED.

THE FINAL VOTE FOR THE SENATOR

Seems in the Ohio Legislature While Mr. Foster's Successor Was Being Chosen—An Analysis of the Votes Cast.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15.—According to the statute the election of United States Senator commenced in both Houses at 11 A. M. In the House, Henry Bell, of Marietta, nominated Henry B. Payne, of Cleveland. There was a long pause, and the Speaker asked, "Any other nominations?"

Mr. Walker, of Logan, got up and said the Republicans had decided to support Mr. Bell, and there were no nominations. The roll-call then proceeded.

The Democrats all voted for Henry B. Payne in loud voices. The Republicans voted Mr. Bell until it came to H. C. Brown, of Perry County. He said "Charles Foster." Mr. Washburn, of Lorain, also made a speech, saying he didn't believe in voting blank, and didn't want Payne elected unanimously, therefore he voted for Charles Foster.

The vote was twenty-five for Payne, many members being absent. The result was Payne, 51; Bell, 39; Foster, 2. Payne was declared the choice of the House, and the business of the day proceeded.

Mr. Thompson, of Hamilton, was not present, and his vote was not recorded. There was much surprise about it.

In the Senate Payne was nominated by Senator William, of Cleveland. The Democrats, twenty-five for Payne, and eight Republicans voted blank, with not a vote for Foster. Payne was then declared the choice of the Senate.

In the Senate, Brewster, of Dayton, introduced a bill to repeal the Wytheville Street Railroad bill of 1871. Brewster said the bill was passed to give the Consolidated Company in Cincinnati a monopoly, which was a most compelling corporation. This bill will bring up the old lobby again from Hamilton County to prevent the passage of the bill.

TRIAL OF YOUNG NUTT.

Appearance of the Prisoner and His Friends.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 15.—At ten this morning the case of James M. Nutt, charged with the murder of Lyman Deane, on June 19 last, was called in the Criminal Court. The defense was made by J. M. Nutt himself. Many prominent physicians will testify to his prompt. Nutt's demeanor was quiet, composed and unflinching. He seemed more cheerful since his arrest. The attorneys for the defense are confident of securing an acquittal. Judge Stone said that through the prisoner had been arranged in Fayette County, the law governing change of venue provided that the prisoner be tried according to the regulations of the County to which the trial had been removed. He therefore directed that the prisoner be arraigned in this court. He was directed to stand up while the indictment was being read. In putting in his plea, he said firmly, "Not guilty." He was then taken out of the court by his counsel. The work of expediting a jury trial commenced. But little more than ordinary trouble and delay was occasioned in the selection of a jury. The following was the list up to 3 P. M.: David Jenkins, J. W. McCully, Wm. G. Lee, Thomas Fair, William Starnes, James Jenkins, Lewis Jenkins, James Taylor, Charles Grassie and Charles Hines, making ten in all. A recess was then taken. The attorneys for the prosecution are all satisfied with the men who have been chosen as jurors, they all being men who would prefer being jurors in the case. The court officials say that the jury is above the average as to intelligence. Mrs. Nutt, Miss Nutt, and several friends and near relatives of the prisoner arrived in this city in the afternoon. Mr. Nutt's father, Alexander Nutt, dressed in full mourning. The widow of Captain Nutt is a fine looking old lady, but somewhat feeble. Miss Lizzie Nutt is of medium height, rather plump, and in appearance, but still can't be called beautiful. They were all entertained at the residence of Major Brown, of the regularity of the jury is rendered. On the assembling of Court at 3 o'clock, news of the selection of the jury was received. The jury, which was accomplished shortly after 4 o'clock, John A. McDowall and Robert D. Nicholson being selected, and the court was then adjourned for the day. Of this jury eleven are Republicans and one a Democrat. They were confined in the jury room with Tipstaff Patterson and two assistants, under whose care they will be until discharged by the Court.

MARYLAND SENATORSHIP.

The Peculiar Law Which Restricts the Legislative Action.

ANNEAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 15.—The ballot for a successor to Mr. Groome in the United States Senate begins to-day in the Legislature. As the contest now stands it is believed to be the fortunate one. There is a peculiar law existing in Maryland relative to the election of United States Senators, which was enacted in 1870 and has been in force ever since. It provides that every second United States Senator shall be from the eastern shore of the State. Senator A. F. Groome, then, whose term does not expire until 1885, being from the Western shore the successor Mr. Groome, whose term expires on March 4 next, under the law, must come from the Eastern shore. This law is, however, regarded by many as unconstitutional and therefore cannot be enforced. Mr. Groome is hopeful that he will be returned to his seat in Washington, and has many friends in the Maryland Legislature. Judge Robinson has located as a candidate from the Eastern shore, and shows considerable strength. Since his inauguration Governor McLaughlin has become unpopular, and many have lost faith in him. He has been approved on the subject of the Senatorial succession, and has been successful in securing a resolution before the Assembly, provided the Eastern shore has exhausted her efforts before the Legislature adjourns. It is a candidate from the Western shore is also up.
